THE DEEP HEART

COMING HOME TO THE INTIMACY OF THE PRESENT MOMENT

A 3-day weekend intensive with Jeff Foster in The Netherlands

What if...

- ♥ you are perfect, and loveable, and whole, exactly as you are?
- ♥ the perfection you've always been seeking is actually contained in the midst of your tender vulnerability, uncertainty, brokenness and shame?
- ♥ the deep rest, freedom and aliveness you long for is not found in transcending, fixing, or even healing yourself, but in embracing the 'glorious mess' of your humanity, and surrendering to the beautiful imperfection of your life?
- ♥ there is precious alchemical medicine hidden inside your pain, and your deepest longings, aches, doubts and sorrows are actual portals to joy?
- ♥ spiritual enlightenment is already here, shining through the ordinariness of the present moment, closer than your next breath?

Do you long to find peace, stillness and joy, even in times of fear, loss, uncertainty and heartbreak? Then join spiritual teacher Jeff Foster for a weekend of rest, inspiration and deep compassion. Explore the place where profound spirituality meets our deepest humanity.

During the weekend Jeff will gently and lovingly guide you to recognizing the perfection in your imperfections, the beauty in your confusion, and the sacredness in your sorrow. He will invite you to slow down, reconnect with the present moment, and fall in love with both the excitement and boredom of your days.

Discover how everything is a gift on this unbreakable path that you call your life - the joy, the laughter, the tears, the fear and doubt, the pain of profound heartbreak or loss, even the moments you believe you'll never make it. How it is all a divine path, all part of a greater perfection.

During the weekend topics will be explored such as....

- ♥ How spiritual enlightenment is not a goal, but your very nature.
- ♥ How to bring love and acceptance to your body, your relationships, your work, and your sense of self.
- ♥ Why life can be trusted absolutely, even when you are in fear and doubt, and trust seems a million light-years away.
- ♥ How to let go of your mind-made destinations, and find the courage to hold everything in love.
- ♥ Why spirituality is as simple as breathing, and as natural as gazing up at the stars at night and falling into silent wonder.

Jeff holds a safe, loving, agenda-free space, in which we can see our struggles, our fears, and our sufferings in a fresh new light. With his trademark humanness and humour, heartfelt talks, guided meditations, and honest dialogues, he shares a sacred jewel of inner peace and aliveness amidst the noise and mess of everyday life.

This will be a weekend of resting deeply with like-minded friends, of letting go of the exhausting search for 'something more'; a weekend of being present, aware and alive, meeting whatever arises in ourselves and each other.

Whether you are struggling with your life and are looking for peace and space amidst the chaos, or you are a healer or therapist interested in meeting your clients in a new way, this weekend intensive is for you. It's a great chance to dive into Jeff's inspiring and comforting message and discover the Deep Heart of the present moment.

We look forward to seeing you at this 3-day event with Jeff Foster in The Netherlands!

Testimonial:

*"I am still very touched by your warm presence, compassion and humbleness last weekend...
I never saw unconditional love expressing itself so delightfully and so human before, although I've been to many wisdom teachers.... Thank you for your love, your clarity and patience, your humility, authenticity and humour... and thank you for listening and being so patient."*

PROGRAM

During the weekend Jeff will hold 7 group meetings of around 1½ hours each. Attendance of all meetings is very highly recommended. In the meetings Jeff will lead guided and silent meditations and offer spontaneous talks. There will also be opportunities to ask Jeff questions.

All meetings are English spoken, without translation.

Please mind that all meals during the weekend will be enjoyed together in silence!

On Saturday and Sunday before breakfast you are encouraged to take part in a 'mindful yoga' class. Free time during the days can be spent doing absolutely nothing! Or, for example, you could go walking or cycling in the lovely surrounding woods.

Monday morning after breakfast the weekend will end.

Testimonials:

"This was a very good weekend, the catering and care were excellent, and Jeff was just Jeff: light, clear, funny, confronting, loving and touching. Enlightenment appeared again to be that 'forgotten' simplicity to 'just' live life.... I feel fulfilled, light and spacious after this weekend." - V.R.

"Jeff has been the biggest life-changer and presence-bringer I needed in my life. I am forever grateful to him for helping me to stay present and accept my full humanity, in all of its doubts, fears, sorrows, its sensations, feelings and its joy. Truly, thank you!" - R.L.

"Our world does not need any more gurus, teachers and saviours, but honest human beings, who live here among us, who strive to switch on a light-bulb in the darkness of the emotional underworld. Thanks, Jeff, for being a role model." - E.S.
